- K. Students will not be pressured or coerced to take or read school-sponsored media.
- L. Posters and similar materials associated with school-related activities are subject to the approval of the principal and may only be displayed in accordance with school-based procedures. Posters and similar materials that are not related to school-related activities are subject to the provisions of Policy KJB Distribution and Display of Materials and Announcements.
- M. Advertisements may be published in school-sponsored media subject to established criteria and procedures.
- N. Student journalists who disagree with a decision of an advisor/sponsor or principal related to the content or other aspects of a publication have the right to an appeal.

II. Content

- A. Decisions regarding what will be published in school-sponsored media rest with the editor(s) and advisors/sponsors of the medium, subject to the authority of the principal/designee and the appeal process.
- B. The author's name will be required on each communication submitted for publication. It is the responsibility of the editor and advisor/sponsor to determine the form and method by which an author is identified.

III. Finances and Equity

- A. The advisor/sponsor of school-sponsored media will strive to obtain financial sponsorship to supplement the funds provided by ACPS.
- B. The school will strive to provide equal opportunities for all students to participate in or make contributions to school-sponsored media.

IV. Advertising

All advertisements in school-sponsored media, including programs associated with school-sponsored media, are subject to the provisions of Policy Regulation KJ-R and the following criteria, which will be applied by the advisor/sponsor, subject to the authority of the principal/designee, in determining whether to permit inclusion of such advertisements:

- A. Advertising must be identifiable or labeled as an “advertisement”.
- B. Advertising must be submitted under the name(s) of the individual(s), the name of the business or, in case of unincorporated associations or organizations, and the names of the officers sponsoring the advertisement.
- C. Use of advertisements containing company trademarks or the names and/or pictures of persons who are not public figures must be authorized by the appropriate representative of the company or individual/ organization.
- D. When practical, such as when advertisements appear in a separate section of the media, the section will be preceded with a statement indicating that the advertising does not reflect the viewpoints or policies of the editors, the school or the Board of Education.
- E. The school system, through the ACPS administrators, reserves the right to disapprove part or all of a school-sponsored media advertisement if the content or activity might reasonably be perceived to advocate drug, alcohol or tobacco use, violence, sex, intolerance, discrimination, or other illegal or prohibited activities.

V. Appeal Process

- A. A student who disagrees with a decision of a faculty advisor/sponsor related to the content or other aspects of a media or production may appeal the decision.
- B. The student will meet first with the advisor/sponsor to discuss the decision and ask for reconsideration based on perspectives and considerations presented by the student. The advisor/sponsor will provide a response to the student within two (2) school days from the initial meeting.
- C. If the advisor/sponsor does not provide a decision within two (2) school days, or if the student is dissatisfied with the decision of the advisor/sponsor, then the student may appeal in writing to the principal/designee within two (2) school days.
- D. The principal/designee will endeavor to meet with the student within two (2) school days of receipt of the written appeal. The principal/designee will render a decision within two (2) school days of the meeting with the student.
- E. Principal’s decision may be appealed to the Superintendent or designee.
- F. Any further appeal is subject to Section §4-205 of the Education Article, Annotated Code of Maryland.
