

The Board of Education of Allegany County recognizes homework as an important aspect of the total educational process. When administered properly, homework serves valid purposes by reinforcing and extending learning, developing good study habits, promoting growth in responsibility, stimulating individual inquiry, and enriching the overall learning experience.

June 15, 1993